

Hobbs, New Mexico - On Thursday, April 8th Congressman Harry Teague will visit 3 National Guard Armories in southeastern New Mexico.

The National Guard has 22 sites throughout New Mexico's 2nd Congressional District and employs nearly 1600 personnel. This tour will include stops at the armories in Hobbs, Carlsbad and Roswell. The Congressman will also make a stop at Roswell's Youth ChalleNGe Academy which provides education, discipline and structure to roughly 200 "at risk" youth annually.

Media is invited to tour each of the stops and visit with Congressman Teague and representatives of the National Guard.
